Mr. Slaughter of the U. S. mail at Evansville, Indiana, is prospecting in the city.

The hardware firm of Honck Bros. are repairing their business room on East Douglas avenue.

Mr. Mosbacher, the jeweler, has appropriated unto himself a safe weighing 5,300 pounds.

N. F. Niederlander sampled the corned beef and cabbage at the best hotel in Leon yesterday.

Mrs. Murray Myers is again prostrated with fever and her numerous friends are considerably alarmed.

Bouton's second addition to the city of Wichita was filed for record in the register of deeds office yesterday.

"Got any houses to rent?" is the perpetual query at the real estate office. Won't somebody build a hundred or more.

Mr. M. Cool, postmaster at Derby, came to Wichita yesterday on the hunt of a big watermelon. It is needless to say that he got it.

That irrepressible, good natured speculator Mr. Joseph Morse, of Meriden, Connecticut, will shake hands with the boys for a day or two.

Mrs. W. A. Richey, Master Doll and Mrs. M. B. Hoover and family left yesterday morning for Burlington where they will visit some days.

The plat of McCormick addition was filed for record yesterday. It lies south of the Lincoln st addition and will be popular with the buyers of real estate.

Many were heard to say yesterday that the effort to clean up Douglas avenue was commendable. It seemed to be the opinion that the generous public would cheerfully submit to the spread of that sort of reform.

A reporter met a gentleman yesterday who seemed to think that the almost daily occurrence of funerals in the city might have some connection with the generous distribution of watermelon rinds and other garbage.

Mr. J. Luther Burns, of Columbus, Ind., called yesterday. He says that Wichita and the Arkansas valley both far exceed his previous notions, and that he will cast his lot here as soon as he can make his arrangements.

We are requested to announce that Rev. Thomas Wooten, of Fall River, is expected to be present at the Friends-Quaker meeting at 11 o'clock next Sabbath. There will probably be other services, notice of which will appear in Sunday morning's EAGLE.

Mr. J. J. Craven, a newspaper man from Bloomington, Indiana, made this office a pleasant call yesterday. Mr. Craven says he finds himself in the state of astonishment so succinctly expressed by the queen of Sheba when she beheld Solomon in all his glory.

A very shrewd trick is now being worked upon some of the business men. A nice young man goes into a store, makes a purchase, picks it up, and when asked for the pay says with a look of the greatest innocence, that he gave it to the merchant. The trick was successfully worked at several stores.

Messrs. G. W. Bartholomew and J. R. Mead expect to leave today for a few weeks hunt in Colorado and New Mexico, and the present returns do not indicate whether they will go into Lower California or not, but it is the suspicion that they may chawise the republic of Mexico a little, no matter if they did let Cutting board a street car.

Mr. J. K. Hall, of the Daily Wheeling Intelligencer, the leading paper of West Virginia, is in the city. Mr. H. started out to take a look at the west, he says he heard so much of Wichita and her coming importance that he couldn't withstand the temptation to run down and see us. In reply to our question he said, "well, Wichita is simply great."

S. E. Fink Esq., of Mansfield, Ohio, an old friend of Judge Ruggles, arrived in Wichita yesterday. Mr. F. said he came to see and found plenty to look at in our bright city which seems to be the verdict of the hundreds and hundreds of strangers who are filling our hotels and nine out of ten of whom have read the EAGLE.

William McGeorge Jr., Esq., a prominent attorney of Philadelphia, in company with Mr. Lombard, made us a call yesterday for the purpose, they said, of having us tell them all about Wichita's future as the great city of Kansas and why Kansas City in the state of Missouri will not be able to hold her own with the young commercial mistress of the west. It was a warm day and we were very busy but we are always ready for so brief and pleasant a talk.

POLICE COURT.

Maggie Miller looked very tough when she appeared before the court yesterday morning. His honor surveyed her critically and came to the opinion that as Maggie was an old offender and a well known patron of the court that he would assess her $15 for the disturbance she created the previous night. She offered a good many excuses but finally, when it became evident that the judge was paying little attention to them, forked over the fine.

Joseph Lewis and Henry Bely had both been drunk the night before and were fined $5; but as Henry's bank account showed up minus he was committed.

John Doe was still very drunk when he came into court, but he had enough money to pay his fine and so was dismissed.

PERSONAL.

—J. F. Wils n, Kiowa, spent last night in the metropolis.

—D. E. Morris, of Medicine Lodge, took in the city yesterday.

—C. J. Cokerrell, of Nevada, Mo., spent yesterday in the city.

—Dr. J. F. Richardson, of Augusta, was among yesterday's arrivals.

—Mrs. A. McClain and son Fred have returned from a visit in Harper.

—Mr. Edward Phillips left yesterday for a visit of two months to Europe.

—Judd Hill, of Carthage, Mo., came yesterday to look at the metropolis.

—H. W. Lawrence, of West Wichita, has returned from his summer vacation.

—S. S. Woodcock, a prominent citizen of Mulvane, was in the metropolis yesterday.

—Thos. J. Farrell, Laramie, Wyo. Ter., was autographed at the Manhattan yesterday.

—Mr. Burnett, the traveling passenger agent for the Santa Fe railroad, is in the city.

—Rev. W. F. Harper and wife left yesterday for Minneapolis, where they will remain some weeks.

—Mr. E. J. Foster and daughter Margaret left for a visit to Indianapolis and New York city yesterday.

—W. C. Green, of the firm of Green & Thomas, contractors, leaves for Chicago on business this morning.

Professor McIlvarie, of the Lawrence business college, was in the city yesterday, the guest of Professor Fritch.

—Mr. H. H. Gardner, a leading banker at El Dorado, spent last night in the city, and will leave today for Kingman.

—Mr. Robert C. Deam left yesterday for Grand Haven, Michigan, where he will join the Wichita party of which his wife is a member.

—V. T. Bullen, of Belleville, who has taken a partial course in the Southwestern business college, has accepted a position as book keeper in a store at his home.

—Miss Kittie F. Killip, who has been visiting for some weeks her aunt Mrs. W. H. Real, of this city, left yesterday for her home in Cleveland, Ohio.

—W. S. Sturgeon, of El Paso, Ill., stopped over yesterday on his way from his ranch in Butler county to Wellington, where something besides the latter city's growth and industries has attracted him.

—Rev. H. P. Conley, of New York, arrived in the city yesterday morning and is the guest of his brothers James and John Conley, of South Topeka avenue. Father Conley is a member of the Dominican order and is a highly educated and entertaining gentleman.

Company A, 24 Inf., K. N. G., met this evening. Turn out boys and assist the Wichita boom. Be first in war and first in getting the big prize next month at Ft. Riley.

RECAPTURED.

W. T. Stewart, the defaulting telegraph manager at this place, was captured at Winnipeg, Manitoba, yesterday. He will very likely not be returned here for trial, but be taken to St. Louis, unless Dr. Ackerman can make out a case against him sufficient to justify such proceedings.

IN MEMORIAM.

Whereas, The Angel of Death has been permitted to enter the home of Mr. Wm. Taylor, and take thenceforth his only and beloved son Harry B., he is unanimously resolved by the members of the Golden Rule society of Wichita:

That, While we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well, we feel a deep sorrow over the loss of our beloved president who has been taken from us in the full vigor of youth and at a time when he was doing a good work for the Master whom he loved to serve.

That, While we believe that, had he remained with us he would have accomplished a great work for the Master, we also believe that the example he set and the works that he did will be a means of leading souls to the Lord Jesus Christ.

That, we tender to the family and friends of the deceased our heartfelt sympathy in this hour of their great bereavement.

That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the parents of the deceased, that they be placed upon the minutes of this society and that they be published in the daily papers.

Wichita, August 23, 1886.

GAIL CALDWELL,
JENNIE WILLIAMS,
FRANK D. MUNN.

BUSINESS.

Captain John B. Carey is rushing his new hotel with the utmost speed. Yesterday he let the contract for work in every department. The contract for the stone work was given to Wood & Co. The brickwork will be done by N. Hartell & Co., and the carpentering by W. H. Sternberg.

The pressed brick will be furnished by Hacker & Jackson and the other by the Wichita Coal and Fuel company. The contract specifies that the brick shall be on the ground by the first day of November. Thomas Jewell will act as general superintendent of the stone and brick work.

■ Captain Carey says he is going to complete his hotel just as fast as money and men can do it. He will spare neither money nor pains in making it the best house in the state. He will take a trip to Chicago in a few weeks for the purpose of gaining some important information concerning the latest appliances and apparatus used in the best hotels in that city. He says he is going to provide his hotel with fire escapes similar to that of the McCoy house in Chicago. He believes in having everything first-class, and will spend every dollar necessary to make it such.

A STARTLING LETTER FROM OHIO

Of Great Interest to the People of Wichita, Sedgwick, and Adjoining Counties.

To Luntrell Brothers, Wichita, Kansas.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 23.—Having arrived in the eastern markets at the opportune moment to find them overstocked, depressed, and having ranging so extremely low for choice things in the clothing, goods furnishing goods, and hat lines, I could not resist the temptation to buy an unusually large stock; in fact I know that when the tide of ladies' commerce pouring in, you will think I have gone wild, and am trying to dump into the lap of the Little Giant all of Chicago, New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and Cincinnati, but it is simply a good big fall stock, every article of which is a bargain. In order to handle this large stock it will be necessary to extend our store room at least thirty feet, and have fifteen or twenty counters and more shelving made at once. Notify the agents of the different railroad lines of the approach of this large shipment that they may be prepared to handle it without delay. You will find $10,000 worth of the celebrated V. M. & R. Dan Smith cut of clothing alone. The New York, Boston and Philadelphia goods will commence to arrive next week. Let nothing delay you in placing this large and choice collection on sale at the earliest possible moment, as I am sure they will win the approval of the good people of Wichita.

A. A. LUTTRELL,
Eastern Buyer.
